Communicating means sharing, and sharing demands listening and acceptance.

Pope Francis

My name is Lyne Tuepah. I have been appointed as your Diocesan Communication chair and more recently, webmaster for our Diocesan CWL website (www.kingston.cwl.on.ca).

I belong to St Paul the Apostle parish in Kingston and have been in the League for five rewarding years.

I look forward to serving your communication needs; providing you ways to promote and communicate your upcoming events and sharing your parish accomplishments.

The Canadian League magazine

Be sure to read the Fall 2018 issue of the Canadian League magazine. It is packed with information from this year's National Convention, including introductions of our new National Council and the oral reports from executive and provincial presidents. Check out Anne Madden on page 27!

Media for Evangelization

Advent will soon be upon us and if you are looking for daily reflections to assist you in your spiritual journey, here are two suggestions for daily e-mails:

1. Bishop Robert Barron – Daily Gospel Reflections. Sign up at www.bishopbarronbooks.com/dailygospelreflections.
2. Dynamic Catholic – Best Advent Ever. Sign up at www.dynamiccatholic.com/best-advent-ever.

Media to Promote the League

Our newly elected National Communication chair informs us of a new mission statement, approved at the National Executive pre-convention meeting, and is as follows:

"The Catholic Women's League of Canada calls its members to grow in faith, and to witness to the love of God through ministry and service."

Be sure to visit our various League websites when looking for League resources and information. The National site found at www.cwl.ca has been recently redesigned for easier navigation. Please have a look and if you are still having trouble finding what you're looking for, be sure to contact me, we'll walk through it together.

As you have heard by now, Provincial council has a new initiative called: "Warmth and Comfort", whereby we are being asked to collect socks, peanut butter and crackers to donate to the homeless shelters in our areas. As Communication chair, I am being asked to collect numbers from each council as well as pictures from your groups, perhaps delivering to items. Please send your efforts and pictures to lyne.tuepah@bell.net by December 15th, 2018.

Respectfully submitted.
